DAEMEN LIBRARY - DAEMEN COLLEGE

Looking Back

In the heart of the preliminary proceedings that took place on July 24, 1947 to receive a charter for a college, Sister Gonzaga Miller wrote to Fredrick More of the New York State Department of Education, "Our community is founded on, and flourishes on trust." Today, this statement can be remembered as the meaning of Rosary Hill College.

Daemen College was established in 1947, as Rosary Hill College by the Sister's of St. Francis of Penance and Christian Charity. Founded in Holland in 1835, the first pioneers, originally from Germany came to America in 1874. Their goal was to lay a foundation for an education that would not only heal the sick, but make known the Empirical World. The foundress, Magdalene Daemen was a Dutch women known for her strong relationship to the underprivileged society. Her strong dedication inspired many to offer their services to others in greater need. In 1971, the original Liberal Arts College for women became coeducational. In 1976, the college became independent, changing its name to Daemen College.

Senior Week

Graduation from college is both an exciting time and a solemn event. At Graduation, students celebrate the accomplishment of years of study, and become part of a larger community of alumni honoring the institution to which they have a new lifelong connection. The days right before Graduation however, are strictly a time to PARTY!!!

This year, the fun began with a Campus Picnic on Thursday featuring DJ "Mr. Illmatic," horsedrawn wagon rides, great picnic food, and just what everyone had ordered.....a beautiful day. Thursday night the fun continued with the annual Dinner Party Cruise aboard the Niagara Clipper. This is a chartered ship that cruises Lake Erie and the Niagara River while students dine on the "Captain's Feast" and then party the night away. Even though the DJ blew his amp shortly after we set sail, seniors made the best of it and danced all evening to music played over the ship's intercom.

Yes, rehearsal was long on Friday, but Baccalaureate made it all worth it. Describe Baccalaureate -- Well, it's sort of like watching my Big Fat Greek Wedding, but live, and in person, in Wick Center. It's seeing all your friends, their families, and the faculty and staff of the College, looking more like your extended family (with Uncle Bob drinking a bit too much "soda," and the Dean of Students doing her dance moves from Saturday Night Fever). It's realizing what a great little place Daemen College is; it's remembering the friends you made and the fun you had, it's knowing you will always have a connection here no matter where you go.

Graduation

Saturday, May 21, 2005, 2 PM, Kleinhans Music Hall -- Commencement. That was the moment we all waited for, worked for, and stressed about. It was also a moment we recognized our lives would move in new directions, away from the place we called home for the past few years, and from the people who became part of our extended family -- our Daemen family. Our graduating class was the largest Daemen College ever had (Four hundred sixty students received degrees), and the first time concerns of overfilling Kleinhans Music Hall ever confronted the College.

Graduation was especially memorable this year with the Commencement Address being made by CBS News Correspondent, Dan Rather, a personal friend of Daemen College President Martin Anisman. Rather, who was anchor and managing editor for the CBS Evening News for 24 years, received an honorary degree from Daemen following his address. He is currently a correspondent for 60 Minutes.

The College also recognized several students with special presentations.

- Mary Bellanca received the Charles L. Lumsden Award.
- Abby Rose Millner received the 2005 Daemen College President's Award.
- Michael Patane received the 2005 Alumni Senior Award.
- The Mary Angela Canavan Award was presented to Baker Nsubuga.

In his remarks, Rather said that he did not recall who spoke at his commencement, or what was said. But he hoped that the members of Daemen's graduating class would take four words -- Winston Churchill's words to a graduating class in Britain many years ago -- with them from this day forward: "Never, ever, ever quit."
